

How To Navigate The Interactive Web Calendar

Want to find out what programs are happening @ a specific branch?

Click the library you wish to view (located at the left hand side of the calendar page)
Examples: Main Library, Memphis, etc.

You can select multiple libraries

Click update

The screenshot shows the 'St. Clair County Library System - Calendar of Events' page in a Windows Internet Explorer browser. The page has a navigation menu with links like Home, About Us, Hours & Locations, Find a Book, Find Information, Services, Collections, and Contact. On the left, there are two filter sections: 'Select Library and' with checkboxes for various branches (Main Library, Algonac-Clay, Burtchville Township, etc.) and 'Select Events and' with checkboxes for event types (General, Adults, Kids, etc.). The main area is a calendar for August 2011, with events listed in colored boxes for each day. The browser's address bar shows 'http://www.stclaircountylibrary.org/Calendar.aspx'.

Want to look for a program in a specific event type (kids, teens, adults, book sales, etc.)?

Click on the event type you wish to view (located right underneath the list of libraries)

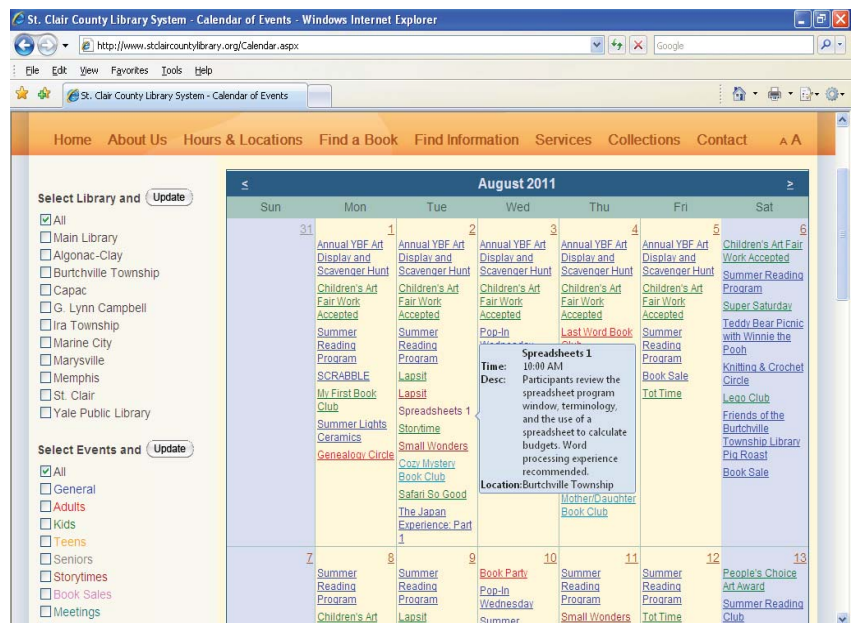

Examples: adults, kids, etc.

You can select multiple event types

Click update

Once the calendar updates to your selected library(s) and event type(s), hover over any programs you are interested in with your cursor.

A pop up will appear with all the information on that program; a brief description, date & time and location.

This screenshot is similar to the first one but includes a pop-up window for an event. The pop-up is titled 'Spreadsheets 1' and provides the following details: Time: 10:00 AM, Desc: Participants review the spreadsheet program window, terminology, and the use of a spreadsheet to calculate budgets. Word processing experience recommended., and Location: Burtchville Township. The background calendar shows the same August 2011 events, with the pop-up overlaid on the event for Wednesday, August 3rd.
